

6. a) General Scheme of Collection

Pitney Bowes shall communicate to all its clients about its E-Waste collection and recycling services through their website and by e-mail communication.

All Pitney Bowes customers can contact the toll free number mentioned in the application for available our reverse logistics services.

(i) Collection and Recycling Plan

Pitney Bowes does not have any collection obligation between the Year 2017-18 to the Year 2021-22 for which the EPR Application is being granted.

Nevertheless in order to develop systems for collection and recycling, Pitney Bowes has engaged with Saahas Zero Waste as a Producer Responsibility Organization.

Saahas Zero Waste would reach out to various stakeholders to collect and channelize E-Waste as per the E-Waste (Management) Rules 2016.

1. Bulk Waste Generators: On behalf of Pitney Bowes, Saahas Zero Waste PRO shall collect E-Waste from other Bulk Waste generators across the country and channelize to authorized recycling partner.
2. Households/Schools: Saahas Zero Waste shall engage with households and schools to organize E-waste awareness and collection drives.
3. Informal Sector: On behalf of Pitney Bowes, Saahas Zero Waste PRO shall also engage with the informal sector for awareness and collection of E-Waste to meet the collection targets.

All E-Waste collected shall be channeled to the authorized E-Waste recycling partner as per the EPR plan submitted to CPCB. Any changes to the plan, shall be updated to the CPCB.

(ii) Specific Collection Scheme: Currently there are no specific collection schemes like buy-back or exchange or Deposit Refund Scheme as the collection targets are nil.

Pitney Bowes would engage with Saahas Zero Waste PRO for collection through above mentioned channels.

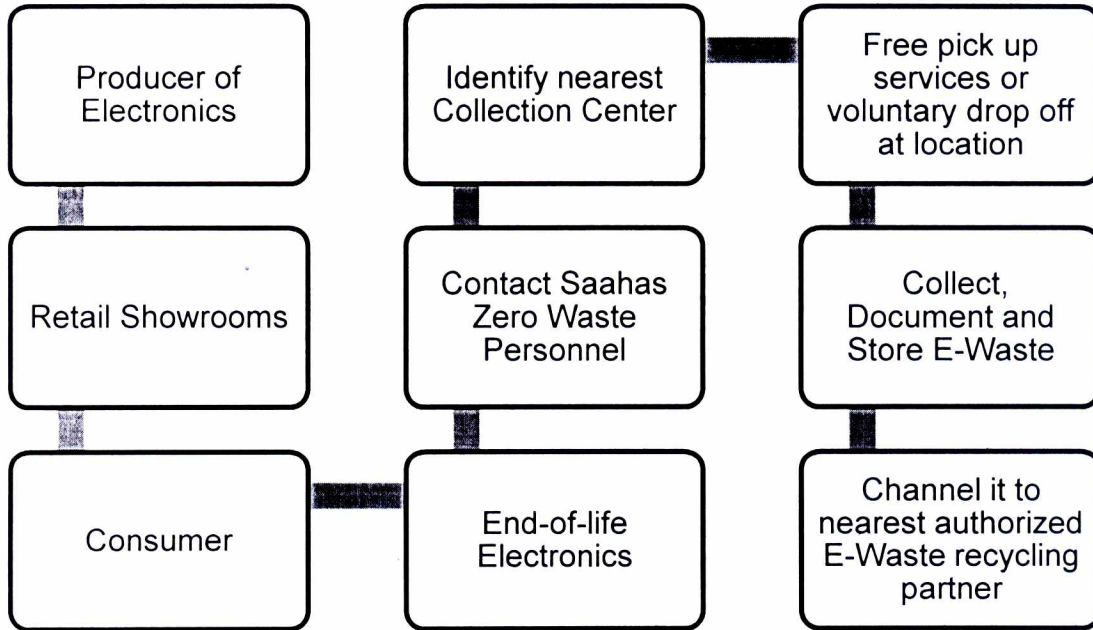

(iii) Toll Free number: 1800 425 35287

All customers can reach out to the above toll free number for E-waste collection services:
